CHORDS

[Intro]

F#

[Verse 1]

F#

Tumble outta bed
And I stumble to the kitchen

B

Pour myself a cup of ambition

F#

And yawn and stretch
And try to come to life

C# F#

Jump in the shower
And the blood starts pumpin'

B

Out on the street
The traffic starts jumpin'

F#

C#

F#

The folks like me on the job from 9 to 5

[Chorus]

B

Workin' 9 to 5,
What a way to make a livin'

F#

Barely gettin' by
It's all takin' and no givin'

B

They just use your mind
And they never give you credit

G#

C#

It's enough to drive you crazy
If you let it

B
9 to 5, for service and devotion

F#
You would think that I
Would deserve a fat promotion

B
Want to move ahead
But the boss won't seem to let me

G# C# F#
I swear sometimes that man is out to get me

[Verse 2]

F#
They let you dream
Just to watch 'em shatter

B
You're just a step
On the bossman's ladder

F#
But you got dreams
C#

He'll never take away
F#
You're in the same boat
With a lotta your friends

B
Waitin' for the day your ship'll come in

F#
'N' the tide's gonna turn
C# F#
And it's all gonna roll your way

[Chorus]

B
Workin' 9 to 5
What a way to make a livin'

F#
Barely gettin' by
It's all takin' and no givin'

B
They just use your mind
And you never get the credit

G# C#
It's enough to drive you crazy
If you let it

B

9 to 5, yeah

They got you where they want you

F#

There's a better life

And you think about it, don't you

B

It's a rich man's game

No matter what they call it

G#

And you spend your life

C#

Puttin' money in his wallet

[Outro]

B

9 to 5, whoa

What a way to make a livin'

F#

Barely gettin' by

It's all takin' and no givin'

B

They just use your mind

And then they never give you credit

G#

C#

It's enough to drive you crazy

If you let it

B

9 to 5, yeah

They got you where they want you

There's a better life

And you dream about it, don't you

Blowin' in the Wind

-Important Playing Notes-

Background:

Blowin' in the Wind is one of the most important songs of the folk era. Bob Dylan's poignant lyrics were a reflection of the turbulent times that America faced in a decade that saw massive change in the social conscience of her citizens.

This version of Blowin' in the Wind is based more on Peter Paul and Mary's cover of the tune. I chose to base the chart on their version because it is an excellent example of how the Travis Pick can be used to accompany a vocal line.

Bm Barre Chord vs. Bm/D

B minor Barre Chord: This chord is a little tricky if you are not yet comfortable with barre chords. Because the root of the chord is on the 5th string, you will want to use the 5th string as the base note for your Travis Pick when playing the Bm. If you have a tough time with the barred version of the Bm chord you can substitute a Bm/D chord in its place. The Bm/D chord would use the 4th string as its base note.

Use root on 5th string
Travis Pick

Use root on 4th string
Travis Pick

More Travis Pick Variations

Variation #1: Replace the final pair of eighth notes in the measure with a single quarter note on beat "4".

Standard Form:

Variation:

Variation #2: Only play the bass note for the chord shape on the first beat of the measure.

Standard Form:

Variation:

Directional Symbol: "D.C. al Fine"

We previously learned that "D.C." means "from the top" or "start" of the song. The "Fine" (pronounced: feenā) is the point at which the song ends, the "Finish". If a song ends at some point other than the last measure on the chart it is traditionally noted with the word "fine" above the ending point (in this case on the "& of one" on bar 8 of the intro).

"...In 1945, the song was sung again as the title tune of another Roy Rogers film, Don't Fence Me In (1945), in which Dale Evans plays a magazine reporter who comes to Roy Rogers' and Gabby Whittaker's (George "Gabby" Hayes) ranch to research her story about a legendary late gunslinger. When it's revealed that Whittaker is actually the supposedly dead outlaw, Rogers must clear his name. Rogers and The Sons of the Pioneers perform songs, including the Cole Porter title tune. Bm F#
On a dark desert highway, cool wind in my hair.
A E
Warm smell of colitas, rising up through the air.
G D
Up ahead in the distance, I saw a shimmering light.
Em
My head grew heavy and my sight grew dim,

I had to stop for the night.
Bm F#
There she stood in the doorway; I heard the mission bell,
A E
And I was thinking to myself, "this could be heaven or this could be hell".
G D
Then she lit up a candle and she showed me the way.
Em F#7
There were voices down the corridor, I thought I heard them say...

[Chorus]

G D F#7 Bm
Welcome to the Hotel California, such a lovely place, such a lovely face.
G D Em F#7
Plenty of room at the Hotel California, any time of year, you can find it here.

[Verse 2]

Bm F#
Her mind is Tiffanytwisted, she got the Mercedes bends.
A E
She got a lot of pretty, pretty boys, that she calls friends.
G D
How they dance in the courtyard, sweet summer sweat.
Em F#7
Some dance to remember, some dance to forget.
Bm F#
So I called up the Captain, "please bring me my wine".
A E
He said "we haven't had that spirit here since nineteen sixty nine".
G D
And still those voices are calling from far away.

Wake you up in the middle of the night just to hear them say...

And in the master's chambers, they've gathered for the feast.
Em F#7
They stab it with their steely knives, but they just can't kill the beast.

When the sun goes down on my side of town
That lonesome feeling comes to my door

D

And the whole world turns blue

[Verse 2]

And there's a rundown bar across the railroad tracks
I got a table for two, way in the back

D

Asus2

Where I sit alone and I think of losing you

E

I spend most every night

Asus2

Beneath the light of a neon moon

[Chorus]

If you lose your one and only

D

There's always room here for the lonely

D

To watch your broken dreams dance in and out of the beams

Of a neon moon

[Verse 3]

Asus2

I think of two young lovers running wild and free
I close my eyes and sometimes see

D

Asus2

You in the shadows of that smokefilled room

[Verse 4]

Asus2

No telling how many tears I've sat here and cried
Or how many lies that I've lied

D

Telling my poor heart

Asus2

She'll come back someday

E

Asus2

Oh, but I'll be alright as long as there's light from a neon moon

The jukebox plays on drink by drink

Oh, but I'll be alright
As long as there's light

[Intro]

D G D G D

On a warm summer's eve

[Verse 1]

G D
On a train bound for nowhere
I met up with the gambler
A7
We were both too tired to sleep
D
So we took turns a starin'
Out the window at the darkness
G D
The boredom overtook us,
A7 D
And he began to speak
He said, "Son, I've made a life
G D
Out of readin' people's faces
Knowin' what the cards were
A7
By the way they held their eyes
D
So if you don't mind me sayin'
I can see you're out of aces
G D
For a taste of your whiskey
A7 D
I'll give you some advice"

[Verse 2]

D
So I handed him my bottle

G D
And he drank down my last swallow
Then he bummed a cigarette
A7
And asked me for a light
D
And the night got deathly quiet
G D
And his faced lost all expression
G D
Said "If you're gonna play the game, boy
A7 D
You gotta learn to play it right

[Chorus]

D
You've got know when to hold 'em
G D
Know when to fold 'em
Know when to walk away
A7
And know when to run
D G D
You never count your money
G D
When you're sittin' at the table
G D
There'll be time enough for countin'
A7 D
When the dealin's done

[Verse 3]

D#
Every gambler knows
G# D#
That the secret to survivin'
Is knowin' what to throw away
A#7
And knowin' what to keep
D#
'Cause every hand's a winner
G# D#
And every hand's a loser
G# D# A#7
And the best that you can hope for is to die in your sleep
D#

And when he finished speakin'

He turned back toward the window

Crushed out his cigarette

A#7

Faded off to sleep
